
Paper Submission Process

Dear Author,

It is essential that you read the following instructions before you submit your paper:

- 1) Presenting authors are requested to create an account and submit an abstract for the review process. The same account will be used when you register for the conference. Please keep the email and password for the future use.

Refer to the following link for opening your account:

http://www.iust.ac.ir/ccfa/form_register.php?slc_lang=en&sid=1

- 2) You have to upload your abstract (about 150 words) in your account before the abstract submission deadline. Refer to the following link for submitting your abstract:

http://ccfa.iust.ac.ir/form_send_article.php?slc_lang=en&sid=1

The abstract must first pass a review and if it is accepted by the reviewers, the conference will send you the abstract acceptance/rejection notification. Abstract must be submitted in English language according to the existing template.

You can download the abstract template from the following link:

<http://ccfa.iust.ac.ir/page/40/Abstract-Template>

- 3) You prepare and submit your full paper (details will be announced in the future).
- 4) Thereafter, you will pay your registration fee via the Melli Bank payment gateway according to the existing table on the website.
- 5) The scientific committee of the conference will classify the abstracts to be presented as an oral paper or poster.
- 6) After your presentation and confirming your paper on the conference, you will receive the conference certificate.
