

1. Select "Create Account" in the upper right of the site or from the registration menu, then select the registration form.

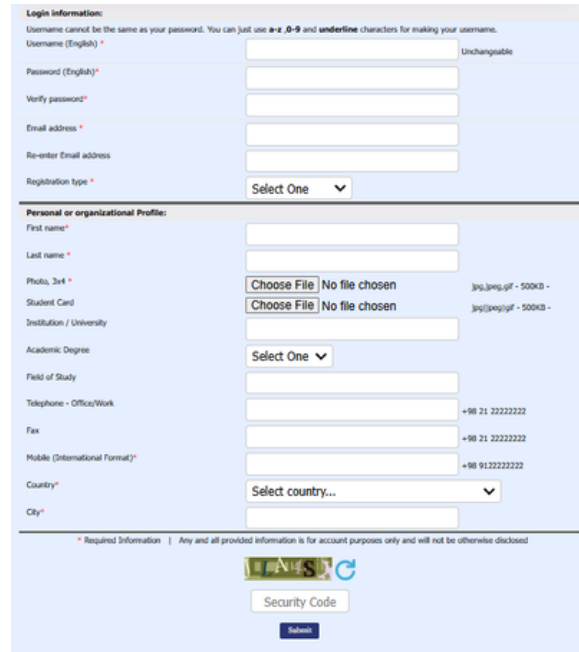

A horizontal navigation bar with a light blue background. It contains four items: a text input field labeled "Username", a text input field labeled "Password", a dark blue button labeled "Login", and a text link labeled "Reset Password". Below the "Username" and "Password" fields is a checkbox labeled "Remember me". To the right of the "Remember me" checkbox is a button labeled "Create Account", which is highlighted with a red rectangular border.

A vertical navigation menu with a dark blue header labeled "REGISTRATION". Below the header are three links: "Registration Guide", "Registration Form", and "Registration Fee". The "Registration Form" link is highlighted with a red rectangular border.

2. Please complete the registration form carefully. All information must be provided in English.

A registration form with a light blue background. It is divided into two main sections: "Login information:" and "Personal or organizational Profile:". The "Login information:" section includes fields for "Username (English)", "Password (English)", "Verify password", "Email address", "Re-enter Email address", and a "Registration type" dropdown menu. The "Personal or organizational Profile:" section includes fields for "First name", "Last name", "Photo, 3x4", "Student Card", "Institution / University", "Academic Degree", "Field of Study", "Telephone - Office/Work", "Fax", "Mobile (International Format)", "Country", and "City". There are also file upload buttons for "Photo, 3x4" and "Student Card". At the bottom of the form is a "Security Code" field and a "Submit" button. A small disclaimer at the bottom states: "Required Information: Any and all provided information is for account purposes only and will not be otherwise disclosed."

3. Once you submit the form, please check your email to activate your account.

You have successfully registered on the The 10th International Conference on Composites: Characterization, Fabrication and Application website.

Activate Your Account

4. Finally, your account has been activated. If you have a problem, please check the contact us page.